EXPECTATIONS FROM THE JOB

I am looking for a new company for long-term collaboration. My expectation is to work on a variety of projects that will help me elevate my professional skills, particularly in learning React and Next.js, as well as gaining experience with new web tools and technologies. Additionally, I am seeking a team with a friendly atmosphere and a strong desire to learn and contribute to the company. While React and Next.js are my primary goals, I am also open to learning other technologies and taking on various tasks.
